

ADJECTIVE TO ADVERB

TIC TAC TOE

This is a game to practice changing adjectives to adverbs and using them correctly in sentences.

Rules for forming adverbs:

1. In most cases, an adverb is formed by adding -ly to an adjective
2. If the adjective ends in -y, replace the y with i and add -ly easily
3. If the adjective ends in -able, -ible, or -le, replace the -e with -y.
4. If the adjective ends in -ic, add -ally. Exception: public -> publicly

How to Play

1. Make two teams or one person versus another. One team is the Os and the other the Xs.
2. The teams take turns choosing any square to try to score "3 in a row."
 - a. variation is to play rock, paper, scissors every round, and the winner gets to choose a square
3. The team jointly makes one sentence with the selected grammar or vocabulary.
 - a. to do this they must first correctly change the adjective to adverb, eg. slow=slowly
4. The other team judges the sentence. If correct, the team places the appropriate letter (O or X) in the square. If the sentence is incorrect, the square stays as is.
5. The winning team is the first to get "3 in a row" horizontally, vertically, or diagonally
