

Making your own comic!!!!

Think of a story: I will give you some ideas but if you have your own great!!!

- A scientist experiment with alien eggs is attacked by a hatchling!
 - Having to work at home because of a virus attack.
 - Going to bed and having a dream.....
 - An adventure in a far, far away isand.

Create the speech that tells the story. For example using the first idea:

- Stop in the name of the Galatic Police!
 - Please, please, he thinks that it's his mummy!!!!

I have provided you with some comic strip templates but you can use your own.

BE CREATIVE!!!! WHO KNOWS MAYBE IT COULD BE PUBLISHED AND YOU BECOME A GREAT COMIC WRITER!!!!

CONGRATULATIONS!

You've finally caught up to the super heroes and villains. Now it's time to do some surveillance work. Use the blank comic strips below to show what you've been observing about our rogue supers.
